THE CREED OF THE OLD SOUTH

BY BASIL L. GILDERSLEEVE

128 Pages. Cloth $1.00

"An impressive plea by a Southerner in justification of the support he gave the Southern cause."—New York Times.

"This delightful little volume deserves to be made a part of the supplementary course of reading in every university and college in the country."—Baltimore Sun.

"Not only children of the South, but children of the North, will do well to read and ponder the pages which he writes, for he clearly makes known what his people were really thinking, and how far the majority of Northern historians have erred in placing their emphasis upon what was a 'peculiar institution' that must in the coming of industrialism have eventually disappeared."—Boston Transcript.

"A blend of rambling reminiscence and spirited apologetics."—The Independent.
